New high school program opens up career paths for students

The Wiesbaden High School implemented a new program this year, called "Academies." The program is designed to combine elements of a study hall and an extracurricular club together in one. It focuses on providing leadership opportunities and time for students to explore their interests.

Mainz Farmer's Market

Every Tuesday, Friday and Saturday from 7 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Mainz farmers market offers an extensive range of fresh, seasonal fruit and vegetables, herbs, eggs, cheese, meat, sausage, fish, honey, spices, bread, coffee, wine and flowers from regional suppliers and self-producers.

While there, historic landmarks such as the over 1,000-year-old cathedral, the 7 meter-high Heunensäule - which marks the center of the city - and multiple museums can be visited right next to the market grounds.
